Come spend some summer time at a beautiful place, learning career building skills and meeting people from all over the United States!

Davenport House Museum

announces the

2015 Summer Junior Interpreter Program

A Junior Interpreter (JI) is a trained and skilled museum tour guide between the ages of 14 and 18 years.

Program Schedule: During the summer, Junior Interpreters meet for two hours once a week for eight weeks in preparation for Junior Interpreter Day when JIs run the museum

Open to: Students ages 14 to 18 (rising 9th graders through high school)

Qualifications:
* An interest in history, architecture, and/or museums
* A pledge to participate in the program and give at least one tour to the public
* The commitment to fulfill volunteer duties in an appropriate manner

Benefits:
* Working with the public in a museum setting
* Making friends with other Junior Interpreters, museum staff and volunteers
* Meeting people from all over the United States and the world
* Experiencing a popular tourist site
* Training in tour-giving techniques and the history of the Isaiah Davenport House
* Learning about: historic Savannah, the Davenport family, historic preservation in Savannah, urban slavery, public speaking and communication skills, museum work, etc.
* Continuing educational gatherings during the school year
* Earning community service hours

— During the school year Junior Interpreters meet monthly.

If you are curious, contact the Davenport House for information.

An orientation will be held on Monday, May 18 at 6:30pm at the Davenport House Museum, 324 East State Street (Columbia Square), Sav.

Please note: A limited number of spaces are available.

Program dates: From 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 10; Tuesday, June 16 and then Thursday evenings, June 25 through July 23; all day Friday, July 31.

For More Information or to Let Us Know You Plan to Attend: Please call Jamie Credle, JI Coordinator at 912/236-8097 or email her at jcredle@davenporthousemuseum.org

Participants observations: “I think many teens might enjoy the JI program,” “It got me thinking about a possible career.” “This was a great experience and I hope I can continue it,” work closely with the Davenport House.” “Instead of watching TV, I learned about a historical place.” “I loved the JI program. Everyone was great!” “I have fun spending time at the museum & I like giving tours too!”

Davenport House Museum, 324 East State Street, Savannah, GA 31401
912/236-8097. info@davenporthousemuseum.org, www.davenporthousemuseum.org,

Davenport House Museum, a property of Historic Savannah Foundation, is committed to providing quality, history related experiences for all ages.
Davenport House Junior Interpreters from Savannah Arts Academy

2014-2015 Davenport House
Junior Interpreters from Savannah Arts Academy

Davenport House Junior Interpreters
Giving Tours for Super Museum Sunday!