Governance:

The Davenport House is owned by Historic Savannah Foundation, which is overseen by a Board of Trustees. Historic Savannah Foundation is recognized by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The Museum has an Endowment Board of Directors who oversees investments and owns the Kennedy Pharmacy Building. The Davenport House Committee, comprised of 14 community members, is a recommending body to the Museum Director. Both members of the Endowment Directors and Davenport House Committee are elected to staggered three-year terms and act in accordance with guidelines established in organizational documents, including the Amended and Revised Davenport House Endowment Agreement.
